Civil air patrol uniform guidelines

Looking Sharp in CAP Uniforms CAP members are authorized to wear CAP distinctive uniforms as well as uniforms similar to the U.S. Air Force. Civil Air Patrol uses distinctive emblems, informative and badges to identify individuals wearing the Air Force-style uniforms as CAP members. Wearing the Air Force-style uniforms, as well as the informative, badges, and devices worn on these uniforms are as prescribed by the commander CAP-USAF with the approval of headquarters USAF. Civil Air Patrol prescribes wear policy and the use of CAP emblems, informative, and badges on the CAP distinctive uniforms. Members who prefer to wear the Air Force-style uniforms must meet the weight and grooming standards prescribed in CAPM 39-1. Basic wear instructions for our most common uniform combinations are available by clicking on the information below. When Chief Master Sergeant of U.S. Air Force Kaleth Wright speaks to fellow airmen his uniform is perfect. Is yours? YOUR UNIFORM is a visual representation of your commitment to the Core values. Because uniforms are unique – only CAP cadets wear the CAP cadet uniform – they are a source of pride. Wearing the uniform is part of your leadership training. The uniform helps you develop self-discipline, personal responsibility and self-respect. When you wear the uniform, you represent not only yourself, but also all cap and the U.S. Air Force, so wear the uniform with pride. How to obtain uniforms Your squadron may be able to provide some uniform items for free. If not, consider our uniformed partner, Vanguard, or if you live near an Air Force installation, local leaders are asking about the military clothing sales store. The proposed best practice is for each cadet to obtain a utility uniform (camouflage) uniform as soon as possible. Two versions are available, ABUs and BDUs. The ordered cost is $150. Upon completion of Performance 1, CAP offers cadets with a Curry Blues Proof for the dress blues uniform. Again, some items may be available locally for free. The ordered cost is $150, less a $100 voucher. When a cadet outgrows a uniform or leaves CAP, we ask families to turn those items into the squadron so other cadets can use them. How to prepare your uniform for a quick start, see pages 7-9 in the New Cadet Guide, pictured below. Ten Tips for Looking Sharp in Uniform Keep you informative in a special place at home. Prepare your uniform the night you wear it. Trim loose strings of buttons, bags and belt loops. Use spray starch when ironing. Acquire enforcers or put cardboard behind your ribbons. Check your look in a full-length mirror. Keep a small cloth with you to dust your shoes and brass. Check your gig line when you leave a car or toilet. Avoid leaning against anything while in uniform. Commander's discretion can be used to determine whether individual's personal care is within standards of this manual. Commanders do not have authority to await care and appearance standards, except as identified in this tutorial. The personal grooming standards listed are minimum standards that represent common appearance issues and are not all-inclusive. Although members have the right, within established limits, to express their individuality through their appearance, this tutorial defines what is and what is not an acceptable, professional image for CAP members. Except for minor variations based on gender differences, all CAP staff must adhere to the same personal grooming standards depending on the uniform they wear (USAF-style or Corporate-style). Commanders have the responsibility to determine compliance with the letter and intent of this manual and to correct the obvious violations, regardless of whether the situation identified is clearly written in this manual. 3.2. USAF-style Uniform Grooming Standards. Members must comply with the requirements of this paragraph and subparagraphs to wear the USAF-style uniform. All cadets must adhere to USAF-style grooming standards regardless of what uniform combination they wear. 3.2.1. General requirements for hair. Will be clean, well cared for, present a professional look and allow proper grinding of head carrier and meet safety requirements. Will not contain excessive amounts of care aids (e.g., gel, mousse, pomade and moisturizer), appear lopsided, either touch eyebrow, or end under an imaginary line at the top of the eyebrows that are parallel to the ground. If applied, dye should be bleaching agents and frost natural, human hair colors. The hair colour must complement the member's complexity and skin tone. Examples of natural human hair colors are brown, blonde, blonde, natural red, black or gray. Forbidden examples (not all-inclusive) are burgundy, purple, orange, fluorescent or neon colors. Wigs can be worn due to a temporary medical condition if they meet the standards of this paragraph. 3.2.2. Hair (Male). Tapered look on both sides and the back of the head, both with and without headgear. A tapered look is one that when seen from any angle describes the member's hair so that it meets the shape of the head, curve inward to the natural termination point without eccentric direction flowing, twists or spiking. A block cut is allowed with tapered appearance. Hair will not be more than 1 1/4 inches in bulk regardless of length and 1/4 inch at natural termination point; so that just now cut or shaved hair on the back of the neck to touch the collar. Hair will not touch the ears or stick out from under the front strap of the head carrier. Clean shaved heads, military high-and-tight or flat-top cuts are authorized. Prohibited examples (not all inclusive) are Mohawk, mullet, wheat, dreadlocks or attested design. Men are not authorized hair extensions. See Attachment 3 for sideburns, mustache and beard and for graphic examples of male hair standards. 3.2.2.1. Sideburns. If worn, sideburns will be straight and even width (not flamed), and will not extend below the bottom of the ear opening. Sideburns will end up in a clean-shaved horizontal line. 3.2.2.2. Mustaches. Male members may have mustaches; but they will be conservative (moderately, being within reasonable limits; not excessive or extreme) and will not extend downward beyond the lip line of the upper lip or stretching sideways beyond a vertical line drawn upwards from both corners of the mouth. 3.2.2.3. Beards. Beards were not authorized. Members who require wear from a beard for medical or religious reasons will wear the Corporate-style uniform. 3.2.3. Hair (Female). Minimum length is one inch to a maximum largest share of three inches of scalp. Hair can begin to gradually taper from one inch in length to 1/4 inch in length about three inches from the hairline (no shaved heads, flat tops, etc.). Hair will end up above the lower edge of collar and any side of an invisible line drawn parallel to the ground. When in doubt, evaluate correct length of hair with the member standing in the position of attention. Except in the physical training uniform (PTU), hair lengths that would be below the bottom edge of the collar will be pinned with no loose ends. Hair will not touch either eyebrow, to include an invisible line about eyebrows and parallel to the ground. If worn, hair needles, combs, headbands, elastic bands and barrettes should match the hair color (that is, blonde, brunette, natural red, black, gray), but hers still has to meet bulk and appearance standards. Ornaments are not authorized (i.e. ribbons, beads, gem pins). Scrubs are not authorized. Attachment 3 for women's hair. 3.2.3.1. The intention is that pinned hair is in a which prevents loose ends from stretching upwards on the head. For example, when using a clip or hairdants, hair will not present the appearance of a tail; when hair is in a bun, all loose ends must be tucked and secured; when hairstyle based on a ponytail is used, it should be pulled all the way through the elastic band and can naturally hang downwards and not extend under the bottom of the collar. As with all hairstyles, a neat and professional image is essential. 3.2.3.2. Braids, micro-braids and wheat are authorised. However, they should be a natural search color for people similar to the individual's hair color; conservative (moderate, being within reasonable limits; not excessive or extreme) and not presenting a dull appearance. A braid is three or more servings/strands of infused hair. When worn, various braids will be of uniform dimension, small in diameter (about 1/4 inches), shows no more than 1/4 inches of scalp between the braids and should be tightly intertwined to present a neat, professional and well-groomed look. Pigtails should continue at the end of the hair in one direction, in a straight line, and can be worn loose or a safe style within hair standards in paragraph 3.1.3 above. Dreadlocks (defined as long as strands of hair that are now twisted off the scalp to the tips; heavy carpeted coils of hair that form by themselves, eventually fusing along to form a single lead; or unkempt, twisted, matted individual parts of hair), shaved head, flattops and military high-and-tight cuts are not authorized hairstyles for female members in the USAF. 3.2.3.3. Hair color. highlighters, and frost will not be faded and will be natural looking hair color for humans, similar to the individual's hair color (e.g. black, brunette, blonde, natural red, and gray). 3.2.3.4. Body hair. Female members will remove bone hair that protrudes visibly outside the appropriate hosiery or cause a visibly unequal texture under hosiery. 3.2.4. Fingernails. Male members were not authorized to wear nail silk. If worn by women, nail bag will be a single color that does not clearly contrast with the female member's complexity, detract from the uniform, or be extreme colors. Some examples of extreme colors include but are not limited to, purple, gold, blue, black, bright (fire engine) red and fluorescent colors. Do not apply designs to nail or apply two-tone or multi-tone colors; however, white-point French manicures are authorized. Fingernails may not exceed 1/4 inches long outside the tip of the finger and must be taken care of cleanly and well. Fingernails should not interfere with performing assigned duties. Fingernails should fit properly from prescribed safety equipment or uniform items in the notch. 3.2.5. Cosmetics. Male members are not authorized to wear cosmetics. Female members may wear cosmetics; however, if worn, will be conservative (moderate, within reasonable limits; not excessive or in and in good taste. Female members will not wear shades of lipstick that clearly contrast with their complexion, which detracts from the uniform, or which are extreme colors. Some examples of extreme colors include but are not limited to, purple, gold, blue, black, bright (fire-engine) red, and fluorescent colors. 3.2.6. Tattoos/Brands/Body Markings. For purposes of this tutorial, a tattoo is defined as an image, design, or mark made on the skin or other parts of the body by staining it with an indelible dye, or by any other method, including photos, designs or markings that are only noticeable or visible under certain conditions (such as ultraviolet or invisible incar tattoos). A brand is defined as a photo, design or other brand burned in the skin or other parts of the body.
